VERSE 2         You run after every sinner
                Oh great shepherd of the soul
                Returning love for our rebellion
                Died to make us whole

                                 C
BRIDGE          There is a hope
                                 G
                There is a peace
                                 Am                                  F
                There is a light that's leading me to my home
                Unexplainable joy
                Undeniable strength
                That is is flowing from the river of God
